Hi Nina,

[REDACTED]

Regarding the evidence reviews, we have arranged for the FBI's stand-alone desktop computer to be made available for you and your client to use to review the contraband evidence again at our office (including the non-sanitized chats with the six minor victims) based on Judge Ellis's instructions and are still waiting to hear back about your availability on May 3 and/or May 4. Members of the defense team can continue to use ADC's videoconferencing system and can reserve time for in-person visits at ADC to begin on May 1 to review the sanitized chats and other non-contraband evidence with him. Giving your client copies of the chats to review on his own would violate the Protective Order, which follows the requirements of 18 U.S.C. § 3509 and the CVRA. If you would like to schedule time to review the non-sanitized chats (or any other contraband evidence) again before the May 3 and/or May 4 review with your client, please let me know.

Please also copy Seth Schlessinger on all future communications.

Hope you have a nice weekend.

Bill
